P R E F A C E.

This Catalogue, which is now offered to the Public, is believed to supply to readers that need which has long been apparent to visitors of our Library. Great care has been given to its arrangement, which is strictly alphabetical, and under the best known name of each author will be found a complete list of his books now in the Library. The same books are arranged also under their individual titles.

---

REGULATIONS ADOPTED BY THE TRUSTEES.

1. The Library is open to the public every Saturday, from 4 to 9 o'clock, P.M. ; also, during the months of July and August, and until the middle of September, on Wednesday evenings from 6 to 9.
2. The terms for taking books are as follows : Five cents per week if not retained over two weeks ; ten cents for each succeeding week. Books on scientific subjects, travel, history, or other such educational books as are so marked, or are such in the opinion of the Librarian, may be retained beyond one week at half the usual rates.
3. Books retained beyond four weeks will be sent for by the Librarian, and the expense charged to the person taking the book.
4. Marking the books, turning down leaves, or using them other than in a careful manner, is forbidden.
5. Persons losing books are required to pay for or furnish a new copy of the same.
6. The annual examination of books takes place in December, and all books are required to be returned before the 15th, when the Library will remain closed for two weeks,— to be opened the first Saturday in January.

Donations of books, pamphlets, etc., thankfully received.

Swampscott, February, 1876.
